

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE for Dan Sheptooha

BBehSc, GDPsych, PGDip Psych, LLB (Hons), GDLP, FDRP
Registered Psychologist

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

I am a registered psychologist, nationally accredited mediator, and family dispute resolution practitioner with expertise in working with children and families experiencing family breakdown and separation. I have a particular interest in post separation conflict and child centered intervention. In addition to the provision of psychological treatment, my experience includes facilitating family dispute resolution, court ordered post separation parenting courses and family therapy. I conduct clinical and forensic assessments in the role of expert witness, predominantly in the Children's Court and Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia.

ACCREDITATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Psychologist (General Registration) with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency
- Nationally Accredited Mediator with the Australia Mediation Association
- Accredited Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner with the Attorney General's Department
- Regulation 7 Family Consultant with the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia
- Collaborative Family Law Professional
- Member of Australian Psychological Society
- Member of Australian Mediation Association
- Member of Pacifica Congress Australasia

FORMAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Behavioural Science – University of Queensland, 2009
- Graduate Diploma of Psychology – Bond University, 2011
- Post Graduate Diploma of Psychology – Bond University, 2012
- Basic Mediation Accreditation Course – Bond University, 2014
- Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner Accreditation Course – Bond University, 2014
- Bachelor of Laws (Second Class Honours-Division A) – Queensland University of Technology, 2018
- Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice – College of Law, 2019

PRESENTATIONS

- Panel Speaker –The Family Law Pathways Network Annual Dinner (Central Coast) on The Future of Child and Family Law Practice – 21 March 2024